Wild Beasts Roam Streets of Cincinnati

Three Lions Escape From Cage in Menagerie and People Flee in Terror.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 20.—In the heart of Cincinnati there was a real lion hunt yesterday in which the entire police force, re-enforced by such of the male population as had not fled to roof or cellar, took part.

Through the busiest streets in the city to the suburbs and into the woods beyond the chase continued. It ended late in the afternoon, when the last of three cowed and cuffed African lions was led back to its cage in a traveling circus.

Panic Reigns Supreme.

Panic reigned in the city. On the heels of the news that three wild animals had escaped and were bounding through the city, leaving a trail of dead and maimed in their path, streets were deserted like magic, doors were locked and barred, and the upper windows of houses bristled with every description of firearms.

Parents, frantic with fear, rushed to the schoolhouses to see that their children were safely locked within. Messages breathing terror poured into every police station. With revolvers gripped in either hand white faced patrolmen dashed cautiously up and down side streets.

Lions Gambol About Streets.

Two of the lions, dazed and amazed at the unexpected liberty, gambled like kittens about the streets near the circus. Revolver shots pattered about them like hail. One by one they were cornered, clubbed and maimed by circus attendants in stupidity, and dragged back to their cage.

The third and youngest made straight for the woods at Norwood. Two hundred policemen trailed cautiously. Deep in the forest the animal for a while hid behind every tree around it for within a mile there was a bluecoat waiting. Finally one of the circus attendants prodded it out with a pole. A noise was waiting, and with ten men pulling at a rope it was dragged back to its cage.

Only One Casualty.

The only casualty of the hunt occurred at the beginning. William Johnson, an animal tamer, was hurt in trying to prevent the escape of the animals from an overturned "shifting box."

dazed and maimed, and only knows that she was, in the eyes of the public, a woman of the highest social position, a woman of the highest social position, a woman of the highest social position.

ROCK ISLAND COMING WEST

Back of Denver-Boise Line.

Route of This New Line
From Colby, Kan., Given in Detail to Boise.

Crosses Other Big Lines and Taps the Very Heart of Wyoming on Its Way to Idaho Capital.

The Rock Island system is behind the Colorado, Wyoming & Idaho road, just incorporated.

The route of the line, the incorporators and the general tendency of the whole incorporation points to this important fact.

For months a railroad has been talked of in Boise and an emissary of some party or parties has been in that city securing inducements to offer the road for building into Idaho's capital and thus placing it on a main line for the first time.

Boise Is in Luck.

The people of Boise are to be congratulated on the news that the Rock Island is behind the project, as that is one of the big systems of the world, independent and working to form a through transcontinental line every tree around it for within a mile there was a bluecoat waiting.

Finally one of the circus attendants prodded it out with a pole. A noise was waiting, and with ten men pulling at a rope it was dragged back to its cage.

Minnie Healy Mine Closed by Courts

Thousand Men Involved, and Five Hundred Thrown Out of Work by Injunction.

Special to The Tribune.

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 20.—The famous Minnie Healy mine, valued at $10,000,000, was closed today by injunction issued from Judge Clancy's court.

Nearly 1000 men are affected—500 thrown out of work.

The fight over the ownership of the mine is now in the hands of the Supreme court. Judge Clancy previously awarded the property to Healy as against the Amalgamated, and a final decision is expected soon.

It was this property that the Ada Brackett scandal arose, involving Judge Harney, who first gave the property to Healy, and then to the Amalgamated.

The Amalgamated men were in the Healy controversy, laying the foundations for a series of bitter contests between the Amalgamated and Healy. The present action is based on the allegation that the Healy men are taking over from adjoining property belonging to the Amalgamated.

When Constable Fitzgibbon served injunction papers upon Mr. Healy, the latter promptly ordered and threw the miners at him, attempting to strike again, but interference on the part of others averted serious trouble.

The injunction proceedings followed the suit instituted by the Amalgamated against Healy for $100,000 worth of work alleged to have been stolen by Healy.

MRS. POTTER'S DIAMONDS.

Amazed Voyagers on Kaiser Wilhelm by Her Display of Jewels.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Potter Palmer caused a sensation at a concert on the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse.

Alois Burgstaller of the Metropolitan opera company was rendering a vocal selection when Mrs. Palmer walked into the main saloon wearing a mass of diamonds, pearls and other precious gems such as those on board had never seen on a transatlantic voyage.

According to some of the passengers Mrs. Palmer wore a tiara that had at least 100 diamonds, several of them as large as lima beans. Her corsage is said to have been a mine of diamonds, one of the largest ever seen on a transatlantic voyage.

Her waist and several strings of pearls were around her neck.

The revenue cutter took on board Gen. Fred D. Grant and Adrian Honore and Hon. Palmer of Chicago, brother and sister-in-law of the late President.

General's wife, who is the sister of Mrs. Palmer, and all met Mrs. Palmer at the pier.

LOSERS BRIDE BY SOMNAMBULISM.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 20.—W. Gruenwald of this city went to bed in his own house last night and woke up this morning at 4 o'clock.

He wants to be married, but the girl to whom he is engaged says there will be no wedding unless he can get a divorce from his present wife.

He has engaged men to watch him, but after he had been asleep for some time he started up and found himself in a strange place.

He found himself in a strange place, and he was very much surprised to find himself in a strange place.

$500 REWARD for WOMEN

WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the disease and weakness peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Womb, which they cannot cure.

All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

WHEN LOVE INVITES

The woman follows the man of her choice though the path leads out of Eden into a world untrodden and untried. What is her reward? Many a time when her health is broken by the burdens she has borne for the man's sake, her reward is to see him turn from her to seek rosier cheeks and brighter eyes.

It is man's nature to crave beauty in the wife as in the maid. And what woman is there, who would not be happy to keep her maiden bloom when motherhood has crowned her wisely happy? Some women seem to have found this secret of perpetual youth.

"Age cannot wither them." They have learned that fairness of face and form depend upon the health, and that the general health depends upon the local womanly health. They establish regularity of the periods. They dry the disagreeable drains which draw the lustre from the eyes and the vermilion from the lips as well as sap the body's strength.

They quench the internal fires of inflammation in which the very elements of beauty are consumed. They heal the ulcer which gnaws into the very life. They walk the world as wonders—women exempt from the sacrifice to love. How have they done this? By the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which makes weak women strong and sick women well.

It matters not how weak the woman is, or how sick she is, "Favorite Prescription" will cure the womanly ills that vex her; will round out the sunken curves of her form, put light in her eyes, tint her cheeks with health's carnation, and make her a glad and happy woman.

Hundreds of thousands of women testify to the truth of these statements. Let every ailing woman read the two testimonials given below and remember that these two women speak for more than half a million other women cured by the skill of Dr. Pierce and by the use of his "Favorite Prescription." There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription," neither has it any opium or other narcotic.

"Two years ago I began to gradually lose my health," writes Mrs. Nellie D. Stark, Vice-President Bethesda Society, 30 Gardner Street, Worcester, Mass. "Became nervous, lost my appetite, and it seemed impossible to obtain a good night's rest. I became emaciated, hollow-eyed, and suffered with frequent heart palpitation. Complexion was bad and 'muddy' looking and I had a haggard expression. I felt as though I had lost its charm; did not care to live, for life without health is simply a living death. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription changed all this. It came as a blessing into my home; I felt better in a short time after starting to use it, and within a month I was like another woman. New life, health and vigor returned and my husband fell in love with me all over again, and a new light and happiness came into my life. Your medicine did all this for me, and it is certainly worthy of praise."

"I was a great sufferer for six years and doctored all the time with a number of physicians but did not receive any benefit," writes Mrs. Geo. Sogden, 641 Bond Street, Saginaw (South), Michigan. "I had given up all hope of ever getting better, thought I would write to you. When I received your letter telling me what to do I commenced to take your 'Favorite Prescription' and follow your advice. I have taken ten bottles in all, also five vials of the 'Pleasant Pellets.' Am now regular, after having missed two years and suffered with pain in the head and back. I was so nervous, could not eat or sleep. Now I can thank you for my recovery."
